

Questions to Ask Your Student's Teacher at Conferences

- How do you check for student understanding?
- Do you check for student understanding every class?
- Do you have a seating chart?
- Why did you place my student where he/she is currently sitting?
- What type of student data do you use to influence your teaching?
- Do you grade assignments for accuracy or completion?
 - If completion, why?
 - How do you know if my student is actually learning the objective?
- How do you build positive rapport with your students?
- How can I help my student succeed in your class?
- When, where, and how often do you post assignments/homework?
- Do you offer students an opportunity to correct/redo assignments?
- How often do you quiz/test students?
- What steps have you taken to prevent student misconduct?
- How do you routinely communicate with parents?
- How is my student doing in your class academically, emotionally, and socially?
- How can my student improve in your class?
- Have you read my student's IEP/504 plan?
- What accommodations do you make for my student?
- What is the best way to contact you?
- Can you clarify a situation for me?
- Can I give you private, relevant information regarding my student?